SUBJECT: Weekly Activities Report No. 3
15 -21 January 1960

I. SIGNIFICANT ITEMS

None to report.

II. OTHER ACTIVITIES

1. Through the good offices [redacted] went to a meeting of the Explorer's Club held at the Cosmos Club last Thursday as a guest of [redacted]. Some new films on the USSR were being shown and Beatty felt they might be useful to SIC. The films turned out to be of only marginal value, but [redacted] apparently had an interesting evening as a vicarious explorer.

2. [redacted] had the usual pleasant experience in his trip to Maxwell; courteous, well-managed treatment, and a receptive audience. He has already been asked to participate in next year's program.

3. I also had a good session at the FSI's Senior Officer's course this morning, a most receptive, inquisitive and pleasant group. A pattern seems to be emerging in these FSI classes. The EOD's, who clearly know almost everything, are the hardest to deal with. The Mid-Career group has always been courteous and attentive. The Senior group - much more aware of the gaps in their knowledge and much less reluctant to reveal them - provided the easiest task of all in spite of my apprehensions. I was told that my interpretation of the title "Communist Instrumentalities" was just what they wanted, and that I have already been put down for next year's schedule.

4. [redacted] has agreed to undertake a coverage of the underground mechanisms and potential R&E capabilities of Free World Communist Parties in the R&E course scheduled for reserve officers [redacted]
